

CHAPTER 3.

ANIMALS AND FOWL.

(As to slaughtering, etc., beef, hogs, etc., see §12-4 of this Code. As to application of traffic regulations to persons riding or driving animals, see Chapter 13. As to handling or using snakes so as to endanger human life or health, see § 15-46.)

- § 3-1. Raising or keeping hogs.
- § 3-2. Confinement of fowl.
- § 3-3. Confinement of livestock.
- § 3-4. Animals on sidewalks.

Sec. 3-1. Raising or keeping hogs.

It shall be unlawful for any person to raise or keep any hog within the municipality, except as an indoor pet. (For state law as to authority of municipal corporation to prohibit keeping of animals, see Code of Va., § 15.1-870.)

Sec. 3-2. Confinement of fowl.

The owner or custodian of any fowl shall keep such fowl on his premises.

Sec. 3-3. Confinement of livestock.

The owner or custodian of any livestock (other than hogs) shall keep such livestock on his premises by the erection of a suitable fence, so designed and maintained that such livestock will not have access to any adjacent property.

Sec. 3-4. Animals on sidewalks.

It shall be unlawful for any person to ride, lead or drive any horse, mule or pony on any sidewalk of the municipality.
